

MARKA BRING MODERN ARABIC TO D3

Marka launch their homegrown dining concept, The Kitchen Restaurant Deli

Dubai, UAE, October 9th 2018: Marka PJSC (DFM: MARKA), has announced an addition to their lifestyle portfolio with the launch of their homegrown dining concept, The Kitchen Restaurant Deli.

Opening its doors at the prevalent Dubai Design District, the modern Arabic destination is inspired by Marka's award winning flagship brand, Reem Al Bawadi. The Kitchen Restaurant Deli menu pays homage to those must-try traditional home-cooked favourites such as mixed grill, shish tawook, fatoush and many more, as well as comfort food classics with a modern twist.

"The opening of The Kitchen Restaurant Deli is a very exciting development for us as a company. Following on from our award-winning concept, Reem Al Bawadi, we wanted to launch our own homegrown modern Arabic destination. We are confident that our specially created menu, and welcoming design will be a great success within the d3 hub, and beyond" – Chadi, Manager of Operations Casual Dining

Located on the corner of Building 9 in d3, there is dining options both inside and out. Greeted with a combination of inviting tables, a large statement deli bar, lush greenery, and friendly staff the interiors set the stage for the customers relaxed dining experience.

The kitchen Restaurant Deli will serve a combination of signature dishes for breakfast, lunch and dinner as well as a fully stocked delicatessen with a delicious selection of salads and ready to go items at an affordable price. It will be the perfect place to dine with friends, catch up over lunch, or simply grab a bite on-the-go.

The concept will also offer free
