Going concern basis

The Board of Directors has reasonable expectation that the Group has adequate resources and support to continue its operational existence for the foreseeable future. For this reason, they continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the interim condensed consolidated financial statements for the three-month period ended 31 March 2026.

Events after the period end

In late February 2026, geopolitical tensions in parts of the Middle East have increased. Public communications from Government and regulatory authorities have continued to emphasise the resilience of the underlying economies and the continuation of business operations.

The Group's management has assessed the impact of the geopolitical issues on their business taking into consideration, amongst others, the safety and well-being of employees' and wider stakeholder community, supply chain and monitoring cash flows. Based on the assessment, Group's management has concluded that there are no significant implications as at 31 March 2026 and for the three-month period ended and Group's management continues to monitor the situation and guidelines issued by the Government and regulatory authorities.

In the opinion of the Board of Directors, no item, transaction or event of a material and unusual nature has arisen in the interval between the end of the reporting period and the date of this report, which is likely to affect, substantially the result of the operations of the Group for the three-month period ended 31 March 2026.

Independent Auditors

Ernst & Young Middle East (Sharjah Branch) offered their services to be the independent auditors of the Company for the financial year 31 December 2026. In the Annual General Meeting held on 7 April 2026, their appointment has been approved by general assembly for the financial year 31 December 2026.
