Al Safwa Mubasher is Nominated for “Federation of Euro-Asian Stock Exchange” Award

- "Al Safwa Mubasher" has qualified to the shortlist of FEAS award after competing with hundreds of brokerage firms from the continents of Europe and Asia.
- The nomination came after selecting only the brokerage firms which the award's criteria applied upon.

Dubai, United Arab Emirates, 1st October 2018: Al Safwa Mubasher has announced that it has been qualified to the “shortlist” of Federation of Euro-Asian Stock Exchange (FEAS) award, which will be announced on Monday, 29 October 2018.

The announcement comes after Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange (ADX) has nominated several brokerage firms operating in the market to FEAS award. Al Safwa Mubasher will be between the final candidates in the “shortlist” of regional stock exchanges for the European and Asian Stock Exchanges (FEAS). Abu Dhabi Securities Market (ADX) On Monday and Tuesday, 29-30 October 2018, will host the event of ConFEAS that brings together more than 200 experts, economic thinkers, academics and senior executives from around the globe.

Mr. Ehab Rashad, CEO of Al Safwa Mubasher, said: "We are very pleased with this nomination as it came at a time that reflects the clarity of our executive steps and our mechanisms to parties beyond just our clients. The nomination came from Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange, which I thank and admire for their confidence, also, the shortlisting came from FEAS based on carefully developed standards to suit the markets of the continents of Europe and Asia, the thing which shows the high efficiency and global standards that have been always maintained in every single step by Al Safwa Mubasher. "

"We wish success to all candidates and let's hope that it could be an opportunity to cooperate and exchange experiences with each others to work on flourishing our field in the region.", Ehab added.
