Free-float Shares:

In accordance with the definition stipulated in Article 4 of the listing and delisting rules issued by the Board of Directors' Decision No. 11 of 2014 and amended by the Decision of the Board of Directors of the Financial Regulatory Authority No. 170 on 21/12/2014, free-floating shares are all shares available for trading without restrictions. They are calculated after excluding the following from the company's listed shares on the stock exchange:

1. Shares owned by holding state companies in their subsidiaries that are listed on the stock exchange.
2. Shares owned by main shareholders according to the following percentages:
 - 100% of the shares must be retained according to the listing rules.
 - 97% is excluded if there has been trading on the main shareholder's stake within the past year.
3. Shares owned by founders during the prohibition period stipulated in Article 45 of Law No. 159 of 1981, whether at the time of establishment or capital increase, unless they are among the shares of the main shareholders.
4. Treasury shares.
5. Shares guaranteeing membership of the Board of Directors, if required by the company's articles of association, throughout the membership period.
6. Shares owned by shareholders obligated by agreements or contracts to retain a percentage or number of the company's shares for a certain period.

Main shareholder: A main shareholder is any shareholder who owns 10% or more of the company's shares, whether directly or indirectly through groups and related parties.
